Rancho La Puerta | Tecate, Mexico

Rancho La Puerta is the original fitness and resort spa, set on 4,000 acres of gardens, meadows, and mountains in Tecate, Mexico. This luxurious sanctuary invites guests to ring in 2026 with balance and renewal.

The programming here encourages both reflection and growth, offering over 80 fitness classes, from yoga and Pilates to TRX and guided hikes. Holistic therapies, including Reiki, sound bathing, and WATSU (an aquatic therapy), are available for deep relaxation.

Guests savor fresh, seasonal, pescatarian spa cuisine crafted from the property's own organic garden, or can join immersive cooking classes at the renowned La Cocina Que Canta.

To welcome in 2026, the resort embraces an alcohol-free celebration centered on mindfulness, movement, and meaningful connection.
