Group FAQ's

HOW LARGE IS A "GROUP"?

We consider a group to be 8 or more guests, as long as at least 50% of the group's attendees are first-time visitors to Rancho La Puerta. Our maximum capacity is 30.

HOW LONG CAN WE STAY?

Three, four, and seven-night stays are the norm at our resort, with most guests staying one week, Saturday to Saturday. Four-night stays arrive Saturday and depart on Wednesday, and three-night stays arrive on Wednesday and depart on Saturday.

WHICH OF YOUR CASITA ACCOMMODATIONS DO YOU RECOMMEND?

Groups stay in our Villa Casitas, which can hold two, three, or four guests. They are also conveniently co-located in a way that promotes group camaraderie. All have large living areas and patios – both ideal for informal gatherings, brainstorming sessions, or breakout groups. Please note that Ranchera Solos and Ranchera accommodations are excluded from group rates.

HOW FLEXIBLE CAN THE RANCH BE?

Very! Special arrangements, such as midweek transportation to or from the San Diego airport, private dinners, cooking classes, spa services, conference rooms, and much more can be completely customized to ensure the best stay possible for your group.

“There’s no place like this on the planet, between the mountain, the sacredness of the land, the type of people that it attracts—there’s something magical that goes on here. The Ranch heals your soul, no matter what. Even if you’re just here for a couple of days, you will be healed. It’s the only place I know on the planet that does this, which is why I’ve been coming here as a presenter for many years and now love bringing groups with me.”

— Leslie M., Astrology Group Retreat Leader, 40 Visits

“Rancho La Puerta provides the perfect setting for a small group retreat within a world-class wellness resort. Our learning sessions dovetailed perfectly with the Ranch’s comprehensive menu of programs that cultivate the mind, body, and spirit.”

— John C., Healthcare Professionals Group, 3 visits

“With every aspect of The Ranch, our group felt so incredibly welcome, well taken care of, and nourished (both physically and psychically!). We were able to seamlessly weave in custom running-related activities for our attendees, while also enjoying the full complement of RLP activities. Thanks to the incredible Ranch representatives, we have had several repeat guests join our RLP retreats.”
