Vicky Pinpin-Feinstein Oct. 30, 2023 Santa Barbara Independent:

The film recounts the little-known event in history about the rescue of 1,300 Jews that Commonwealth Philippine President Manuel L. Quezon welcomed through his Open Door policy, unusual at a time when more countries turned away Jewish refugees fleeing the terror of the Nazis than received them. . . . It was Quezon's conviction that it is everyone's duty to help those in their hour of need.
